

MISS ELLA OFF, Indianapolis, Ind.
SUFFERED FOR MONTHS.

Pe-ru-na, the Remedy That Cured

Miss Ella Off, 1127 Linden St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"I suffered with a run down constitution for several months, and feared that I would have to give up my work."

"On seeking the advice of a physician, he prescribed a tonic. I found, however, that it did me no good. On seeking the advice of our druggist, he asked me to try Peruna. In a few weeks I began to feel and act like a different person. My appetite increased. I did not have that worn-out feeling, and I could sleep peacefully. In a couple of months I was entirely recovered. I thank you for what your medicine has done for me."—Ella Off.

Insurance Among Criminals.

"Criminal insurance," said a detective, "is the insurance that thieves and blacklegs take on in case of arrest. For instance: You are a second-story man. You make about $2,500 a year, the average second-story man's income, and you carry an insurance of $1,000, for which you pay the big premium of $125 a year. Now, if you are arrested, the insurance company steps forward and hands you $1,000. Thus you are able to get the best of lawyers for your defense."

"Receivers of stolen goods are usually rich, and it is these men, as a rule, who carry on the criminal insurance business. I know of a criminal insurance company in Philadelphia, another in New York and a third in St. Louis. The policies run from $100 up to $5,000 and the premiums are always enormous. This is because the danger of arrest is so great."

"Besides the criminal insurance concerns, I know of a curious beneficial organization that is conducted among the criminals of Illinois. Each member of the organization pays in $1 a week and in case of imprisonment his family receives $5 weekly as long as his sentence lasts."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Cutting up Shines.

"I'm of an economical turn of mind," sighed a citizen who had evidently been over his last summer's straw hat with a toothbrush moistened in warm suds and ammonia. "I have to be. I would like to be prodigal and I have often thought that if I could my hands on large quantities of money I would be fully as generous as some of my rich neighbors appear to be. However, this announcement displayed by a shoe polishing establishment appealed to me a day or two ago. 'All shines 5 cents.' It was conspicuously painted on both windows of the 'parlor' or 'parlors' and it decorated a triangular wooden contrivance on the sidewalk near the door. 'That's a capital idea,' I whispered to myself and I went in. The first placard that greeted my eyes when I had climbed into a chair was done in large red and gold letters and read, 'Holiday and Sunday shines 10 cents. Oil shines 15 cents.' 'Same old story, same old game,' I mused.

"There's quite a difference between 'oil shines' and 'all shines,'" I said to the proprietor as cheerfully as I could. 'A difference in the spelling makes a difference in the price. You ought to spell your "all shines" "oil shines," or perhaps it would be better to spell your "oil shines" "all shines.'" By that time I was pretty well mixed up myself.

"Me no understand," said the proprietor, solemnly, shrugging his shoulders—and I don't much wonder."—Providence Journal.

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored

LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use 1/2 tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot. First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:

1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.

2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.

3. Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. Don't use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.

2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 3 lb. sealed packages.) (Lion-head on every package.) (Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

Thousands of Women ARE MADE WELL AND STRONG

Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Rests Upon the Fact that it Really Does Make Sick Women Well

Thousands upon thousands of American women have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Their letters are on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office, and prove this statement to be a fact and not a mere boast.

Overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine, and compared with it all other medicines and treatment for women are experiments.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished its widespread results for good?

Why has it lived and thrived and done its glorious work for a quarter of a century?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has even approached its success is plainly and positively because there is no other medicine in the world so good for women's ills.

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructive ever discovered to act directly upon the uterine system, positively curing disease and displacements and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due. If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience that it will effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration, or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Anyway, write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. for advice. It's free and always helpful.
